

DEAN FM

RAPPER. ACTIVIST. INFLUENCER.

WEBSITE

RESPECT SHOULD BE GIVEN TO ALL GENDER IDENTITIES.

BIO

Dean FM (Dean-Fraser Milford) is a Boston Massachusetts based rapper, activist and influencer.

His music encapsulates eclectic thoughts that scat over percussive rhythms and exotic sounds. His performances exude drag culture and satiric expression. In 2016, Dean released his debut EP "Watch It", which received local and national coverage. In 2020, Dean FM released his EP entitled "SISSY." The music video for his lead single "Bottom Bit" racked up over 40,000 views. "Bottom Bit" shines a light on the exploitation of prostitution.

In 2021, Dean FM released his latest album Femstress.

Dean FM stands for compassion, courage, and equality. In his activism, he supports the awareness and acceptance of gender neutrality. He refuses to deny his true identity – identifying himself with both he and her pronouns. Dean also advocates for the awareness of BIPOC mental health and the prevention of animal abuse.

In 2021, Dean's "It Get's Better" Mental Health PSA Video Gained over 90K Views on YouTube. Dean was also featured in REWIND's Music & Mental Health Vlog & Podcast. His song "In-Between" off of the latest album entitled "Femstress" was featured at OUT MetroWest Gala- a LGBTQQIA supportive nonprofit organization.

As an influencer, Dean utilizes his platforms to further promote his art and advocacy work.
